Do-A-Dot paint daubers have been popular in our house since my oldest was in the toddler stage. I just love the ease of these sponge tipped paint bottles that let little ones get creative without the need for paint tubs and brushes. Use them on their own with blank sheets of paper, or grab some dot-art activity pages and let the kids have at them!

From time to time we did run out of dauber ink or we didn't have a color we needed. We discovered many other things to glue into the little dots... cheerios, honeycombs and fruit loops (which you can nibble while you work), pennies (they get heavy though), pom poms (a big favourite) and circle stickers (smiley faces in the centers of flowers and sunshines are fun!).
