Craft and fine artists use a variety of materials and techniques to create art for sale and exhibition. Craft artists create handmade objects, such as pottery, glassware, textiles, and other objects that are designed to be functional. Fine artists, including painters, sculptors, and illustrators, create original works of art for their aesthetic value, rather than for a functional one.

Artists by Typical Medium This section is intended to make it easy for visitors to find artists who specialize in a particular artistic medium or who are influential in the field. Our goal is not to try to catalog every medium ever used by every artist. The "default" medium, in a sense, is painting. Painters (who frequently produce drawings and prints as well) are not included in this section ...
