Debate has peaked in the last year or so about the treatment and possible restitution of so-called colonial artifacts in Western (i.e., European and North American) museums. The conversation is important for many reasons, but one interesting facet is the way in which the discussion moved from a peripheral topic to one consuming high-level government attention in a very short amount of time.

So tough; all this loss. I still remember Peggy dancing with Bill, her brother, in Amahl and the Night Visitors. They were so involved in their performance, so simple and honest in movement and sincerely how they accomplished their shepherd dance and created a unison and a believability to the whole story.
