A millionaire is an individual whose net worth or wealth is equal to or exceeds one million units of currency. It can also be a person who owns one million units of currency in a bank account or savings account. Depending on the currency, a certain level of prestige is associated with being a millionaire, which makes that amount of wealth a goal for some and almost unattainable for others.

Adding a bit of salt to something outrageously sweet makes it incredibly addictive - Nigella Lawson says her favourite indulgence is a chocolate bar in one hand and a packet of crisps in the other. In this teatime treat, not only is the butter salted, but the salt on the macadamia nuts add extra moreishness. The brackish hit is subtle but alluring.
