Whether taken in tandem with the film or not, Crimson Peak: The Official Movie Novelization is entertaining reading. For those who are enamored of all things del Toro, the novel is a must addition to a collection of his oeuvre.

Crimson Peak: The Official Movie Novelization (Book review ...

This gives the whole feel of the movie a bloody undertone. While the film isn't really a horror film, it certainly has frightening elements. Edith is constantly haunted by not only the ghosts of Crimson Peak but her mother's for whom she basing a book around. The strongest aspect of Crimson Peak is the visual spectacle you're given.
