The best way to learn about a new cuisine is from those born and raised in that country, and that's why I have Pepy of Indonesia-Eats as the guest writer for Indonesian food today. Pepy is the first Indonesian food blogger I know and I've since learned so much about Indonesian cuisine from her blog at Indonesia-Eats. In this guest post, Pepy explains the different preparations of Gado-gado ...

Great grilled pizza begins with a great pizza dough such as this simple-to-follow recipe for no knead Roman-style pizza dough. It can be used for thin crust or thick crust, and even for focaccia. When followed precisely, the recipe's end result is a crispy, smoky grilled pizza similar to that from a brick oven.

Selecting a book font seems simple enough, but important subtleties and fine points of typography are not obvious to the average writer. This article offers insights into fonts suitable for book typography. Though it won't turn the average author into a professional typesetter, it will inform indie publishers about the kind of guidance they should expect to receive from one.
