These campfire stories are either really scary, or are suspenseful enough that they will scare you anyway. A note about campfire stories from our "soapbox:" We love a good scary story, but be conservative when choosing your audience. Many children are just beginning to sleep out, and an upsetting experience could jeopardize their overall enjoyment of sleeping away from home, or camping out.

Background. Revenge of the Lawn: Stories 1962-1970, published in 1971, was a collection of sixty-two stories. This was Brautigan's first, and only, published book of stories. Brautigan began this book as a novel about his grandmother, Elizabeth "Bessie" Cordelia Ashlock ("Moonshine Bess") (1881-1950), in Spring 1965. The idea came from an unfinished short story he called "Those Great American ...
