Father Of The Modern Circus

The modern and commonly held idea of a circus is of a Big Top with various acts providing entertainment therein. However, the history of circuses is more complex, with historians disagreeing on its origin, as well as revisions being done about the history due to the changing nature of historical research, and the ongoing circus phenomenon.

WWI ended and pilots came home. They still flushed with adrenaline from living life on the edge. They found ways to buy planes, usually a Jenny, and to finance their adventure of flying they hopped from town to town giving rides. They landed in the nicest field they could find often with a barn in it, hence the name BARNSTORMERS.
