Girl Parts John M Cusick

John M. Cusick takes a burgeoning concept in Japan - pseudo-human companionship - and translates it into American teenspeak. When David's parents and school discover that his technology addiction is so bad that he feels nothing after watching a girl commit suicide on the Web, the guidance counselor proposes a futuristic solution: a Companion.

Girl Parts by John M. Cusick - Goodreads

David is on the verge of self-destruction, and trying to pretend there is nothing wrong does David a disservice. All I can think is that John M. Cusick never read his own story, or someone else wrote that paragraph (at Kindle location 2733). David is obviously psychotic and is only concerned with himself and self-gratification.
