Levers depends on the size of your hands. The stock ones are fine for my wife's 2015 Duke 390, I have the KTM ones on my RC390. The 390 engine guards are on my wife's 390 - not tested, but seem OK for minor drops at least. Small KTM windscreen was added to her Duke - smaller than the Puig you show, but works well for her size.

I recently test rode a 390 duke at a KTM demo day, but it was cutting power during the whole test ride. So I didn't really get a good feel of the bike, and was just worried about someone smashing into me the whole time. Who knows what the issue was, but these things can happen. Especially with a demo bike that has probably been flogged since day 1.
