2020 Classrooms. Learning with e's. MARCH 7, 2011. Will we still need classrooms by 2020? If so, what kind of learning environments will they be? Or will students learn on the move, in their workplaces, at home, and through the multiple connections facilitated by new communication technology?

2020, Education and Learning - eLearning Learning

The argument that online learning in education was equal or superior to traditional classroom learning began to appear by late 2008. They just didn't believe that online learning in education could really achieve success. 21% growth rate for online enrollments compared to 2% growth in the overall higher education student pop.
