Making Peace With The Past

Making peace with your past is up to you and not a validation of someone else. The limiting belief of "I need you to know the harm you caused me" just keeps you in the cycle of pain. As a matter of fact, you DON'T need them to acknowledge your pain. You can make peace with your past WITHOUT their acknowledgment.

Make the wrong one and you'll learn, but if it's right, you'll have peace. Either way you're moving forward. I believe Oprah said it best, "do the right thing, you'll know it's the right thing because in the end there'll be peace". Focus on finding peace where you are now. Then it will be easier to take that peace with you, wherever you go.
