Mozarts Blood Louise Marley

Mozart's Blood. Mozart's Blood is historical fiction based on a real-life character, the opera singer Teresa Saporiti, who created the role of Donna Anna in Mozart's opera Don Giovanni.. The story spans four centuries and takes place in half a dozen great opera houses. It's all about an abiding passion for music which even time and death cannot extinguish.

Mozart's Blood - Louise Marley

Just when you think youve read everyone in horror who matters, along comes Louise Marley with her amazing and lyrical vampire tale, Mozarts Blood. Gripping, artful, tellingly detailed, and impossible to put down, Mozarts Blood is that rare kind of horror novel that works on more than one level. Its visceral. Its evocative. Its scary.

Mozart's Blood by Louise Marley - Goodreads

Mozart's Blood seemed the perfect book for me as I love history, Mozart, vampires and all things Italian. I found the plot was intriguing and the author's vampire mythos very inventive. This is an adult vampire tale, more in the style of Dracula, than Twilight (and I enjoyed both of those).
