Rhetoric is the art of persuasion. Along with grammar and logic (or dialectic - see Martianus Capella), it is one of the three ancient arts of discourse. Rhetoric aims to study the capacities of writers or speakers needed to inform, persuade, or motivate particular audiences in specific situations. Aristotle defines rhetoric as "the faculty of observing in any given case the available means ...

As I read the chapter "Essential Questions: Doorways to Understanding" in Understanding by Design, I realized that many educators I know have an erroneous understanding of what essential questions are and how to use them. For instance, I can remember the middle school principal I worked with encouraging me to post essential questions on my board.
