En Postdata Simon Garfield no solo realiza un buenhumorado repaso a la historia de la correspondencia, como señala su subtítulo, sino que también, de manera relajada, reivindica el valor del correo postal en tiempos de absolutismo del email. Más allá de cuestiones sentimentales o nostálgicas, Garfield valora el poder reflexivo y personal de la escritura a mano frente al más instantáneo ...

The letter has been a method of communication that has been in existence for thousands of years. In the book Garfield takes us from the utterances of Pliny, the wooden cards found preserved in the waterlogged ground at the town of Vindolanda next to Hadrian's Wall, the methods you need to to write the perfect letter and the art of the love letter.
