Now, that I had a finished quilt, delivered and a very satisfied customer, it was time to tidy up the fabric mess that happens after every quilt. (You know that is true). Oh, look at this beautiful Winnie the Pooh backing fabric. Initially, I was going to make a quilt in these colors. Well, I still can. Let's do it.

When I first got into the world of quilt blogging I saw the granny square block tutorial over at Blue Elephant Stitches and decided I wanted to make those with my 2.5 inch square scraps. Over the years, I've made about a dozen of them, used them for various projects like mug rugs, and then put them away when I was distracted by something else.
