If I said every hit record made started on a small label before it was picked up and distributed nationally by a major label, it wouldn't be true. But there were at least hundreds, in reality probably numbering in the thousands, of examples that range from the huge hits, to records that never made it on either label.

LUV: 1979 4x4 Name: John Schoolcraft Location: Spring, TX USA Forum Name: 79luv Notes: My truck is a fine 79 4x4 with a 4 speed tranny, and stock engine. I bought it 5 years ago from a car dealer for 1800.00. I just couldnt resist. It was luv at first sight. Everything works great on this truck, including the a/c. (you really need that feature in southeast Texas).

East Austin's most infamous corner used to be called "The Ends" in the 1930s because that's as far as the streetcar went on East 12 th St. When buses replaced streetcars in 1940, 12 th and Chicon was still the last stop. "We called it the Ends when I was coming up," said Dorothy McPhaul, whose grandfather Simon Sidle, the antique dealer, lived on 12 th and Chicon in the early '50s.
