Sethji (By Shobha De) - Review - Women Planet | Educate

The book zips along at a great pace, it is genuinely unputdownable-and, rather in the style of Joseph Heller's Catch 22, a new (sleazy) character gets added on in each chapter. There is Simran the starlet who has bushy armpits; there is a mummy-obsessed industrialist called Jaiprakash, who can't get over the fact that his mother had an affair with her own nephew; and there is a maalishwalla ...

Book review: Sethji by Shobhaa De - India Today

Shobhaa De's sizzling novel Sethji published in 2012 exposes the dark amoral heart of Indian politics. The De's novel is about ambition, greed and lust. In Sethji the power becomes erotic and the protagonist didn't want to lose the battle. In this novel De changes the script to bring the dark face of politics in front of society.
