The Frogmen Of World War

A frogman is someone who is trained in scuba diving or swimming underwater in a tactical capacity that includes police or military work. Such personnel are also known by the more formal names of combat diver, combatant diver, or combat swimmer. The word frogman first arose in the stage name The Fearless Frogman of Paul Boyton in the 1870s [citation needed] and later was claimed by John Spence ...

Emplacement, removal, or maintenance of caches can all be summed up as servicing. Caches are most commonly exposed in-place by ordinary activities of normal people; when adverse parties compromise a cache, it's usually during servicing activities. Yet, a cache that has not been periodically serviced, at least inspected, is a cache that cannot be counted on.
