Inductive Bible study is learning how to exegete (draw out), as in extracting the information what a text is actually saying in an objective and in a systematic way. We can do this with the Bible for all its worth with our best efforts. We do this through giving people tools and skills to help observe the text, dig out the meaning, and then apply it to their lives.

Inductive Bible Study - Into Thy Word

Question: "What is inductive Bible study?" Answer: Inductive Bible study is an approach to God's Word focusing on three basic steps that move from a general overview to specifics. Through these three steps, we apply inductive reasoning, which is defined as the attempt to use information about a specific situation to draw a conclusion.

In a Bible study small group - cell group, care group, home group, or whatever you call it, icebreaker questions are great for helping everyone get to know one another. They reveal common grounds which serve as launch pads for interaction during the informal times of the group. In addition, if well chosen, the questions can also act as a prelude to the Bible study itself.
