1. D. The passage describes actions of various First Ladies as examples of their importance in American culture. That they are key supporters of the Presidents (E) is not the main idea because the first paragraph states some First Ladies are remembered for influencing their husbands, while others "...have made the history books on their own."

We all know that we need to exercise to be healthy. Unfortunately, the popular wisdom of the past 40 years - that we would all be better off doing 45 minutes to an hour a day of intense aerobic activity - has created a generation of overtrained, underfit, immune-compromised exerholics. Hate to say it, but we weren't meant to aerobicize at the chronic and sustained high intensities that ...
